a Description of a Voyage from Gibraltar to England in the Hope Brig W^m Court Captⁿ on Saturday October 24th 1787 we embarked on board the Hope the Cabin passengers consisted of a Mrs Linsly a widow lady & our family on the 30th we sailed from Gibraltar & soon lost sight of its glow cap rocks - the wind continued East to Friday November 2nd when it changed to the North & drove us much out of our way the weather continued moderate to Saturday 10th when there came on a heavy gale from the west with storms of rain & ice that all our pieces - the swell tossed the ship to every moment pieces - the sailors con were obliged to tie ent their being light fine nor one which continued

re moderate but so
